C 1)

a 0

RAILROAD PIER

3.10

ST MARY'S &

0

D

Q B

CLINCH A

FERNANDINA

Coggswell.

INAUGURATION OF JEFF. DAVIS.

APATHY OF THE PEOPLE.

BURNSIDE'S PROGRESS.

Fortress Monroe yesterday. She brings fourteen released officers, including She brings fourteen receased the New-York Regi-Col. Wood of the 14th (Brooklyn) New-York Regi-little care for him as if he had come among them ment, who was wounded and captured at the battle of Bull Run; Col. Lee of the 20th Massechuestts vesterday. Finding it impossible to leave within the Regiment, captured at Ball's Bluff; Col. Coggswell prescribed time set forth by Jeff. Davis without ifested on the occasion, hardly a cheer being raised.

the purpose of opening negotiations for a general exchange of prisoners. The Rancocus became disabled, bowever, after proceeding some distance, and having put back to between the two Generals.

The result of the interview is not known. The Hoboken, with the sub-marine cable to be haid seroes the bay, did not leave until about 2;

A connection having been made between the cable and the land wire at its terminations on Beach Grove. above the fort, constant communication is had between the Hoboken and Gen. Wool's headquarters. Everything was progressing satisfactorily up to 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Mr. Heiss telegraphed that he had proceeded about five miles out.

There is no doubt about the line being successfully morning for the James River, to receive about 300 this he was mistaken, for he presently received an released Union prisoners.

She has now (5 o'clock) returned. The released perfectly calm and collected, he fired to sait himself, prisoners go to Baltimore to-night. Among them are Cols. Cogniwell, Lee, and Wood, Lieut. Harris, them. At this firing the people were delighted, and and about a dozen other officers. Also the crews of the schooner Ocilia, captured in the Guif of Mexico Lient. Spear was covered with glory, while his comon the 1st of November, and the brig Elsinore.

The largest number of the prisoners returned belong to the Tammany and 1st California Regiments.

There are now no Union prisoners remaining at deavous until about 3 o'clock this afternoon. The whole number of released prisoners is about

The Richmond Dispatch of Saurday has the fol-and a large number of troops. The Confederates opened a heavy fire upon them. The Yankoes landed sender to the country is the surrender of the helm to be tore off the shoulder-straps from his uniform, moistened as it went by. tion for the rain of a free people. A child with mand. Col. Finnigan and Judge Livingston also battery of boat-howitzers with skill and courage as banble, an old man with a young wife, are partial requested him to return, but he made no reply, deem antil ordered by Gen. Foster to cease fring. illustrations of the deplorable folly.

The Richmond Dispotch is lauding Gen. Price for to attend to his basiness without interruption, and himself in the charge in the most reckless manner, matters. The Dispatch contains the programme for the inauguration ceromonies; also, a proclamation of schooner Arrow, of Nassau, New-Providence, ar-Jeff. Davis, sunconclug Friday, the 28th inst., as a rived with a load of salt and coffee from the Ba-three companies of his regiment, who charged from day of fasting, humilistion and prayer.

There is nothing in the papers from Savanrah.

Release of Cols. Lee, Weed, and DESCRIPTION OF THE FORTIFICATIONS.

Escape of G. F. Spear from Fernandina.

Mr. G. F. Spear, a pative of Michigan, but for many years past a resident of Fernandina City, Florida, at rived in town a day or two ago, having made his escape from that place at the imminent risk of his 'iffe. We give the following interesting sketch REPORTED FALL OF NASHVILLE. of Mr. Spen's escape, together with many important items concerning the condition of the Rebels, the mant er in which they treat Northern men, their for ifications on the Fforida coast, &c. Mr. Spear so ye that at the time Jeff. Davis issued his proclamaion giving forty days to Northern persons or alien enemics either to leave the State or to take the oath TOWN OF WINTON DESTROYED. of allegiance, he was engaged in the firm of Spear & Arnett, architects and builders, and had under contract the building of a Market and City THE RICHMOND WHIG ON JEFF. DAVIS. Hall for the City of Fernandina. His business, including the contract referred to, involved him to such an extent that he could not possibly comply with the HIS ADMINISTRATION A MISERABLE FAILURE menifesto of the Rebel President, unless he left the place in a penniless condition, and, moreover, he did not consider it politic to hastily flee, owing to the intense animosity entertained by the people against all The Old Point boat has arrived here, having left persons of Northern birth. Though an old resident of the place, he was well known as a Northern man, and while treated with securing cordiality, he saw through it all, and felt that the inhabitants had as of the Tammany Regiment, and Capt. Keffer of suffering heavy pecuniary losses and without showing his fear of the Rebels, he made himself as com Baker's California Regiment.

Col. Wood was papeled, and had the liberty of moving about the City of Richmond previous to leaving. He was present at the inauguration of leaving. He was present at the inauguration of leaving about the Col. Wood was papeled, and bad the liberty of moving about the City of Richmond previous to leaving. He was present at the inauguration of leaving and leavi Jest. Davis, and states that no queling raised.

Having captain's hand, remarking at the same time, "Now of military organizations." Col. Lee of the Massachusetts 20th, says that just New Powides by a distinguished officer of the Robel Government, who privately assured him that an official dispatch and just been received of the failing of the position. The page of Nashville.

The released Wine prisoners have just marched the first Lieutenary of a company pare and thus did be seespe the Rebels, who would have been received of the failing of the relation of the fails of the position of the fail of the prisoners have just marched the first Lieutenary of a company pare and thus did be seespe the Rebels, who would have been received of the fail of prisoners have just marched the first Lieutenary of a company pare and thus did be seespe the Rebels, who would have been received to the did to the did to the fail of the position. The page and thus did be seespe the Rebels, who would have been received, which has been prisoners have just marched the fail of prisoners have marked the fail of prison before leaving Richmond, on Seturday evening, be be beach in order to prevent the marines on the Joop-of-war Jameetown from recapturing the versuel. Two 6-pounders were drawn to the beach, and, while the men were placing them in battery, a friend of Lieut. Spear's drew him one side in a mather not excite observation, and told him that the people had been talking considerably about him; that they were going to watch him, and had threstened to take care of him." if he did not fire as well as Capt.

"The center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the Cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the cumberland of eight gins. In the center of the classical plant of eight gins of eight gins. In the center of the classical plant is a large cistern, at least like the balance, turned to the balance, tur spect-war Jamestown from recapturing the ves- of eight guns. In the center of the Cumberland the balance, turned to the chaplain, and asked, "Is The Adelside was not by the William Selden, and been talking considerably about him; that they were going to watch him, and had threatened to columbiad. To the right of, and nearly adjoining ferry a little more than two years ago.

The Adelside was not by the William Selden, and the latter, a who captured the State of Virginia at Harper's were going to watch him, and had threatened to columbiad. To the right of, and nearly adjoining ferry a little more than two years ago.

The Adelside was not by the William Selden, and the captured the State of Virginia at Harper's were going to watch him, and had threatened to columbiad. To the right of, and nearly adjoining the columbiad of the state of the series single batteries, and directly in range of the columbiad. The columbiad of the state of the columbiad of the columbiad of the state of the columbiad of the columbiad of the state of the columbiad of the columbiad of the state of the columbiad of th Gen. Wool having stepped on board the laster, a consultation of about an hour in length took place McRory (a noted Secessionist). In this dilemma he between the two Generals.

"Inke care of him" if he did not fire as well as Capt. these single batteries, and directly in range of the consultation of about an hour in length took place McRory (a noted Secessionist). In this dilemma he between the two Generals. hardly knew what to do, and the thoughts of firing mounted in a concealed battery. This gan is supe- who, wounded twice in the head, each time returned on the American flag well nigh sickened him. He rior to any other on the island, and is held as a re- to the field, and in this condition he fought with his knew the trustworthiness of his friend, and knew fur- serve in defense of the harber, which it fully com- regiment until the end of the day. ther that his choice lay between serving at a Rebel gun mands. The battery upon which it is mounted is the or of being mobbed and banged like a dog. The fir- highest sand hill on the beach, and directly opposite for coolness and gallantry than the Brigadier-Gen- It will be observed that the Rebels bave introduced ing commenced, and was eagerly watched by hundthe outer channel, and so located as to rake any veecrals themselves. Gen. Foster faced the enemy's the fashion of having two and three second lieutenreds of people who had assembled on the numerous sel fore and aft that should approach. This gun also battery for five hours, standing in advance of Porter's ants in a company. This is intended to provide the two howitzers, without a thought for his personal brevet rank of licutement for meritorious conduct, great store on his own military capacities, became great store on his own military capacities, became much excited, and got out of temper with his gun, battery of four guns—one 64-pounder (rifle), one 42- his staff, stood by him all day. Gen. Reno led his vance of its occurrence. which he fired almost at random. The boats contain- pounder, and the others 32-pounders. Beside all men under heavy fire through jungle and awamp. On Tuesday the only tug remaining to the Rebels order to open his battery upon the boats. Keeping

The George Washington left at 91 o'clock this Captain would take all the glory to himself, but in erecting them there having been abandoned.

THE BURNSIDE EXPEDITION. Interesting Pacts and Incidents-I. water into the small boats, but taking care not to hit water into the small boats, but taking care not to hit From Our Special Correspondent.

ROANORE ISLAND, Feb., 1862.

About the 1st of September last, in company with many acts of cowardice. Every wounded man that sition.

ing it politic to Veep quiet. He was then permitted Major Kimball, of the 9th New-York, exposed his great victory, as announced in Albert Pike's was not further asked to participate in any military running in teen or twenty paces ahead of his men, waving his sword and cheering them on. Lient. About the first of December Capt. Dennis, of the Col. Potter, of the 51st New-York, is specially hamss. With him Lieut, Spear became acquainted, the left, with the 21st Massachuretts, upon the

A-Large Battery, 2 Wings protecting Rear. C-Concealed Battery. eventually succeeded in getting out of Nassau Inlet, home as a trophy to Gov. Andrew. The flag has the

0

CHANNEL

ONE MILE

0

BREAKERS

O. K. BOYS.

before leaving Richmond, on Seturcay evening, i.e. in his office one fine morning by a Committee and New-Providence Lieut. Spear came to New-York. In the middle bar of the robel colors is the proud his brigade came into action until the battery was answer the Robel officers, 150 in number, have been two miles this sale of Bowling Green. On Thursday two other Northern men, Lieut. Spear purchased a I saw carried to the rear showed a cheerful and re- The officers of the Signal corps, detailed for service shout them for walking over certain limits on the only a few hours before his arrival. Seeing bands The released prisoners left Richmond last night, small boat of ten tuns for the ostensible purpose of signed spirit that was an honor to the regiment to with the several staffs, acted with great coolness quarter-cleck, as they shot at our poor fellows who of Rebels moving about on the opposite bank, he imbut the boat got aground and did not reach the rengoing down to Indian River, on the Florida coast, on which he belonged, and it was not unusual to hear throughout the day. Lientenants Van Buren and looked out of their prison windows at Richmond for mediately ordered up one of his battery to give them a fishing excursion, but in reality to escape from the men who went by on stretchers hurral for our Gen. Gordon were with Gen. Foster, Lieut. Marsh with a breath of fresh air. Among the number on board a greeting with shells. At about 11 a. m. two guns land of Secession. Everything was prepared for the erals, or cheer on the fresh troops as they passed Gen. Reno, and Lieutenants Bradley and Lang with is Lieut. Col. Frank Anderson, notorious in connect were got into position, and a number of shells throwg trip, but Col. Finigan, in command of the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. One brave fellow in the State them in the road. forces, refused to allow her to pass the batteries. Jersey, who, late in the action, had both legs amputation one Capt. Johnson, who commanded In less than twenty minutes after the firing com-The excursion was, of course, given up for the time, tated by the knife of Brigade Surgeon Thompson, had side has been enabled to use it in the division while part of the gaus in Fort Bartow during the action of menced, the last had disappeared from view, "Sproth, Va., Seb. 21, 1982.

"Capt. Nichols of the Petersburg Artillery arrived here this afternoon from Winton, where he had been stationed with a hattery. On yesterday he was shelded out by the Yankees. They had seven steam elicited out by the Yankees. They had seven steam officed security for their good helavior, which have passed up the river. Capt. Nichols had a horse shot from under him. Two of the Coloral transied to consider. A day of two afterward the other owners of the chloroform the effects of the chloroform that the battery was taken prisoner at Fort Hatteras, beard and prisoner at Fort Hatteras, beard and side of the division was immediately into the river, for which they were arrested and locked up. Lieut. Spear interceded for them, and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed and offered security for their good helavior, which maintenance of the day constructed of the chloroform when the shelled on the chloroform when the shelled on the chloroform when the shell his twenty-two shilled telegraphers throughout the control of the chloroform when the shell his twenty-two shilled telegraphers throughout th all of which have pursed up the river. Capt.
all of which have pursed up the river. Capt.
hols had a borse shot from under him. Two of ter the Colonel promised to consider. A day or two
New-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had

New-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had we seen a nide to each battle, having come with recursorcements from NorNew-York Volunteers (D'Epineuri Zouaves) had nore expeditions of the town. A very large seen of the town. A very large seen of the town. his men were wounded. The town of Winton is in after this interview, Lieut. Spear was arrested and been expelled from his regiment by the Colonel, on efficers who, when I saw their field-practice at again exchanged will probably be found in the lot of nately found on Saturday morning, a short distance who, when I saw their field-practice at again exchanged will probably be found in the lot of nately found on Saturday morning, a short distance who, when I saw their field-practice at again exchanged will probably be found in the lot of nately found on Saturday morning, a short distance who, when I saw their field-practice at again exchanged will probably be found in the lot of nately found on Saturday morning, a short distance who is the colonel of the lot of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of nately found on Saturday morning as a short distance who is the colonel of the Another dispatch dated Norfolk, Feb. 21, says: locked up in a negro jull, a small building recking account of a personal difficulty between them, and Annapolis, had only got the code of signals five days prisoners captured by this Division at the next point up the river, with which the crossing of cavalry and The Union forces again ascended the Chowan expected the Chowan of even a beast. With his two friends, he was kept a large number of troops. The Confestrates in this vile place for nine days, not even being reported to Gen. Parks, and was teld to act as one of the confestrates in this vile place for nine days, not even being reported to Gen. Parks, and was teld to act as one of the confestrates in this vile place for nine days, not even being reported to Gen. Parks, and was teld to act as one of the confestrates in this vile place for nine days, not even being reported to Gen. Parks, and was teld to act as one of the confestrates in this vile place for nine days, not even being reported to Gen. Parks, and was teld to act as one of the confestrates in the confestrates in the confestrates again. and burned the town. The Southerners retired.

Our loss is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

The humbing Con.

The humbing Con.

The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress is said to be two men. The humbing Con.

Unress the man and precent of the men as a private soldier, and procuring a musket, at tached himself in turn to several regiments as they for the trouble he had been at; but there was no Gen. Buell's Army. dispatch dated Fort Smith, via Clarksville, a protected trial ss "alien enemies," Lieutenant were under the heaviest fire. The 10th Connecting more hesitation on his part in reading the sentence, and Chattatoogs, Tenn., says that Gens.

Spear was acquitted. His companions were cut had advanced along the road, under a galling fire, and passing it on, than if it had been in a language. Ark., and Chattatoogs, Tenn., says that Gens.

Price and Report are fighting the enemy to-day at placed under $2,000 bonds each, with three additional securities, not to quit Amelia Island. with dauntless intropidity, stood by them, leading by Major Myers to this division are Liout. Joseph of Gen. Buell's Army since the brief, though brilliant Frice and Heinert are nighting the enemy to-day as Eagar Creak, in Beaton County, Ark. The enemy to-day as the fire became more severe, and had just told them to time as the "ALBERT PIKE" the shader of the public streets like a common felon, and the public streets like a common felon, the public streets like a common felon, and the public streets like a common felon, the public streets like a common fel The Richmond Whig of Friday has a bitter article be tween two files of men, that he declared in open keep steady and save their ammunition, when, with posed of Second-Lieutenants M. B. Bessy and Wm. under the promising auspices of Gen. Grant. Immeon the Davis Administration. It says, "Judging by reselts, so far, it is the most lamentable failure in the value and in the same moment was and Luther Bradley, 27th Massachusetts; Thomas repose in which the hundred thousand men of the history, and suggests to the reflecting mind that the and he should henceforth consider himself their en- shot through the brain. His body was taken up tenmost signal service which that Government can now emy; and without a further multiplication of words, derly and carried to the rear, and many an eye J. Lyman Van Buren and R. T. Gordon, 53d New-ly changed into a universal activity. Each one of York; Denning Jarvis and W. S. Barstow, 24th the heretofore motionless five grand columns comabler and better hands. In view of the past, the broke la's sword in two, and throw the fragments Among the brave officers none showed more cool. Massachusetts; Sanford B. Palmer and S. M. Smith, menced stirring, and since the middle of the weak present, and probable future, the page and of to-mor- into the a reet. Judge Baker attempted to conciliate ness and intropidity than young Midshipman Porter 19th Connecticut; Peter H. Niles and Anthony Lang. just ended so general have been the movements of row is a bitter mockery, and a miserable compensa- and flatter thim, and asked him to return to his com- and Master's Mate Hammond, who fought their 23d Massachusetts; George W. Warner and Freder- troops in this department, and at the same time so ick Schlochter, 11th Connecticut; Charles A. Breed varying from preconceived opinions as to the plans of Green, just brought here by an officer of Gen. More and Marvin Wait, 8th Connecticut; J. C. Resd and the Commander-in-Chief, that they first bewildered chell's division. J. G. Beaver, 51st Pennsylvania; and J. W. Hop- the antitated observer and rendered definite conclureceived with great favor by the men.

the militia of his State, being at one time Captain of available columns of the army of the Ohio should be the Derby Blues, and at another Adjutant of the 3d sent up the Cumberland to sid in the attack upon Connecticut Regiment. At Bull Run he was Adju- Fort Donelson, while only a light force should be tant of the 2d Regiment. He was afterward a Cap- made to move upon and occupy Bowling Green. the regiment with him. It is now known as Compa- Evansville, to charter boots to the number 35, for the ny A. While at Annapolis, he was indefatigable in expeditions transportation of from 40,000 w 30,000 his efforts to bring his regiment up to a perfect state troops from Louisville, the mouth of Salt River, and Col. Russell made it his invariable rule to select deserving privates and non-commissioned officers in hold one brigade of his division in readiness for empreference to promoting incompetents in the next barkation, and to Generals McCook and Nelson to young children to mourn his loss.

In the matter of clothing and arms the Rebels are the river. four inches wide. One of the most marderous look- orders. ing of these weapons is in possession of Quarter- Gen. Mitchell came down from Bacon Creek and master Hutchings of the 24th Ma-sachusetts. On the crossed his division over Green River on Monday blade its name, "Yankee Stayer," is written in last, camped at Rowlette's Station (two miles south acid, but it is not likely to do more than adorn a of the river) until Wednesday morning, and then chimney-breast in Boston.

when they had advanced within the range of the linver. guns of the three forts.

New-Providence Lieut. Spear went on shore and blue, with a white border, on the other, which side the battery and detailed as sharpshooters was about and took up the march for Elizabethtown and Salt 3,500, of whom only about 1,000 were enabled to cs- River the same day. cape by the transport schooners.

LIST OF PRISONERS SURRENDERED TO GEN-BURNSIDE.
RIGHTH NORTH CAROLINA REGIMENT.

Major G. H. Bill. C. S. F. A., varieties and separate of the node this Bill Feb. servey. Bill.

COMPANY I, 1778 N. C.—Commissioned officers, 3; Non-commissioned officers, 6; Enlisted men, 82.

COMPANY I., 1778 N. C.—Commissioned officers, 3; Non-commissioned officers, 6; Enlisted of officers, 13; Non-commissioned officers, 6; Enlisted men, 82.

Gen. Nelson's command continued its march to the commission of officers, 13; Non-commissioned officers, 13; Non-commissioned officers, 13; Non-commissioned officers, 14; Non-commissioned officers, 15; Non-commis FIRLD AND STAFF-I Major; I Anderson Surgeon Fire Total, 121. Aggregate, 129.

J. H. GILLIAN, Adjustent.

Of all in the battle, none were more conspicuous

Gen. Buell's Army.

FORTRESS MONROE. THE REBELS IN FLORITICATIONS IN FLORIDA. REBEL FORTIFICATIONS IN FLORIDA. REBEL FORTIFICATIONS IN FLORIDA. REBELS IN FLORIDA. REB extended reputation for them. He has long been in determined between the two commanders that all the tain in the 8th, but being promoted to the Coloneley Accordingly, Gen. Buell telegraphed to all the Obio of the 10th, accepted it and brought his company into River cities and towns, from Cincinnati down to While at Annapolis, he was indefatigable in expeditions transportation of from 40,000 to 50,000 of discipline. In filling vacancies in the line officers, the Upper Green River, to the Cumberland, and at grade below the vacancy. He leaves a wife and two move their respective divisions to the mouth of Salt River, where they were to proceed in boats down > sadly behind us, their muskets being of all patterns, . At the same time the division of Gen. Mitchell was and their knives and swords of all dates and manu-ordered to move from Bacon Creek (aine miles north factures. Among the trophies of the fight I selected of this point to the south bank of Green River), and a short, curved aword or yataghan, apparently of thence on to Bowling Green, and Gen. Thomas, Oriental manufacture, the blade of which, although whose direct advance from the Upper Cumberland rusted and badly backed, had been drawn against us. into Tennessee was rendered impracticable by the The collection of bowie-knives made by our men condition of the roads, was instructed to leave one presents a curious conglomeration of all kinds and brigade as a corps of observation in the intrenchpatterns, from the sharp-pointed, heavy clasp-knife, ments at Mill Springs, and to march the remainder of to the monster fellow with a blade two feet long and his division to Lebanou, and there await further chimney-breast in Boston.

The Rebels were so confident of the impregnability resumed his march toward Bowling Green.

Gen. Nelson withdrew the brigade he had adof their position that they supposed it impossible for vanced to the turnpike crossing (ten miles east of us to take the island with 50,000 men, and on the ap- this place) of Green River to his main encampment pearance of our fleet they congratulated themselves -17 miles north of the river-and on Thursday comupon the prospect of sinking or capturing the vessels menced moving northward toward the mouth of Salt

Gen. McCook's Division struck its tents on Thurs-The entire force of the enemy in the forts, behind day, after preparing five days' cooked provisions,

Gen. Thomas arrived with his Staff and advance at Lebanon on Wednesday morning, and on Thursday and Friday the whole of the two brigades with which he had marched from Somerset concentrated at the some point.

The brigade detached from Gen. Crittenden's divison fer service on the Camberland, in conjunction with Gen. Grant's forces, embarked from Stearnsport, on the Green River, on Tuesday last.

In addition to the above movements in opposite directions, the independent brigade of Brig.-Gen. Wood, until last week employed in repairing the road from Stanford to Somerset, was ordered to march, via Danville and Lebanon, to Munfordville, where it was to form the nucleus of a new division to be immediately organized under its commander. Another unattached brigade, commanded by Col Bruce, was ordered from Bardstown to Louisville. whence it was to join by boats the grand expedition atended to start from the mouth of Salt River.

Such were the movements of the several columns of the Army of the Obio, when on the day before yesterday a sudden modification of the programme of the General-in-Chief occurred. Gen. McCook's division, after making a forced march of twenty-one miles on the day before yesterday, unexpectedly re-this place and report to Gen. Wood, as part of the bark for Fort Donelson in the course of to-day. Gen. Wood's brigade has reached and is now en

The ultimate destination of Gen. Thomas's command I am unable to indicate at present. It is more reds of people who had assembled on the numerous sand hills on the beach. Capt. McRory, who set commands the other batteries.

Two howitzers, without a thought for his personal brevet rank of licutenant for meritorious conduct, than probable, however, that it will advance toward and have any possible vacancy provided for in adhave any possible vacancy provided for in adha the Tennessee line, via Glasgow and Scottsville.

While Gen. McCook's division was marching and ing the marines could be distinctly seen, and they these, the Rebels have two 10 inch columbiads, but and gave his orders with as much deliberation as if after the fight at Elizabeth City came down to us countermarching, Gen. Mitchell's moved with creditcontinued their course apparently without foar from where mounted, Lieut. Spear cannot definitely state. on parade. His aids, Lieutenants Reno and Mor- with a flag of truce for the bodies of O. Jennings able rapidity-considering the natural and artificial Laid, and if the weather is favorable, the line will be the shots first fired. Lieut. Spear had hoped that the obstructions for their services, as were specially conspicuous for their services, as Wise and Capt. Coles, which were delivered to them. also was Capt. Neill, his Assistant Adjutant-General. Gen. Burnside, at the same time, sent a proposi- at this moment in full possession of that town. On Capt. Ritchie took no part in the field action, having tion to ex-Gov. Wise for an exchange of prisoners on Wednesday it marched nineteen miles, notwithstandbeen detailed on board the gunboat Pioneer. Gent certain conditions, to avoid trouble and risk of send- ing the knee-deep mud and the barriendes of felled Parke was expected to the enemy's fire from the time ing them to New-York. Pending the receipt of the trees on the read, to Bell & Proctor's tavern, twenty. taken, and with Capt. Gardner, his Assistant Adju-placed on the Spaulding to keep them from breeding it measured an equal distance, camping in the eventant-General, actually assisted in the charge of the mischief among the men. The field and staff are ing within three miles of the town. About 10 o'clock accommodated with bertis in the saloon, but the or Friday morning the General, with his mounted Lieut. Spear was covered with glory, while his commander was laughed at. Having in this manner parmander was laughed at. Having in this manner parmander was laughed at. Having in this manner parmander was laughed at. Having in this manner parline officers are kept in the between decks with line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with
line officers are kept in the between decks with line officers are kept in the between decks with leaves to line of the line of the line of the leaves to lin tially gained the confidence of the inhabitants, Lieut. regiments, and so much by almost every man, that it keeping with them all through the day. I wish I guards at the hatchways. The field and staff officers his great disappointment, he found that he was too Spear begged off from military duties, and was per- would be invidious to make the distinctions that one could notice all the officers of the different Staffs as are sent to their cabins at 8 o'clock, locked in, and late to accomplish the object of the forced marches of A large proportion of the prisoners were captured mitted to continue his business without serious inter- could in a melée like Bull Run, where the bright examples of courage shine so conspicuously among the many acts of cowardice. Every wounded man that sition.

last once from those who are unworthy of their population and the sition.

relish the treatment much, but we all think they should be well contented that we do not Robels. They were both in ruins, having been burnt infantry was immediately commenced. By this time the whole of the division is undoubtedly quartered in the town. Its composition is as follows:

ISPANIER --2d Oblo, Col Harris; 10th Ohio, Col Burka-Deh Orio, Col Smith 21st Ohio, Col Norton; 33d Ohio, Col Sill, 16th Ohio, Col Stanley; 10th Wisconsin, Gol Chapin M Kentucky, Col. Burtler, 15th Kentucky, Col Pope, 57th Indiana, Major Hall commanding; 18th Limola, Col. Turchin 2th Limola, Col. Nortal art, three companies of in Michigan itch binois, Col. Nichalzi; three companies of in Michiga-Engineers and Mechanics. CVALEX.—4th Onto, Col. Kennett. ARTHERAY.—Journal's, Edgarton's, and Simonton's batteries, or six pieces each

Gen. McCook's division consists of sixteen regiments of infantry, a battalion of Michigan engineers, and one regiment and two independent squadrons of cavaley, and no less than eight batteries of artillery. It is expected to reach Bowling Green on Wednesday, when the force at that point will represent an aggregate of about 25,000 infantry, 2,000 cavalry, and II batteries of artillery.

There having been no means of sending the foregoing North on yesterday, I make a posteript, embodying further details of the occupation of Bowling

Major-Gen. Hardee, with the brigade of Genkins and T. H. Shumway of the 21st Massachusetts, sions as to their real objects venturesome. But the Hindman, that formed so long the Rebel advance Gen. Burmside, in a general order congratulating meaning of shiftings of military masses in this State about Cave city, was still in the town, when our the troops upon their victory, announces that the during the last six days is now intelligible enough to troops reached the cast bank of Barren River. Owname ROANOKE Is: AND is to be inscribed on the flag me, and I am enabled to make the following explana- ing to the interruption of communication by the destruction of the bridges, the first intimation the Shortly after the capture of Fort Henry, informs. Robels had of the close approach of the Unionists hamss. With him Lieut. Spear became acquainted, the left, with the 21st Massachuretts, upon the and after much difficulty obtained permission from lattery. Lieut. Col. Maggi, of the 21st Massachuretts, who was every way worthy of the main Rebel force at Bowling Green in a south-tillery. The residents state that a perfect panic at The surrender of Savannah was rumored at Eich
Col. Finnigan to place from battery. Licut. Col. Ruggi, of the 21st Massachus of the ion Connectical, who was every way worthy of the main Rebel force at Bowling Green in a south
Col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp
supposed in the paper from Savannah was rumored at Eich
Col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp supposed in the paper from Savannah.

Col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp supposed in the paper from Savannah.

Col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp supposed in the paper from Savannah.

Col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp
supposed in the paper from Savannah was rumored at Eich
col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp
supposed in the paper from Savannah was rumored at Eich
col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp
supposed in the paper from Savannah was rumored at Eich
col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort, and enp
supposed in the paper from Savannah was rumored at Eich
col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and the back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort College.

Col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and the back again, setts, was one of the first Ene in the fort College.

Col. Finnigan to pilot the Arrow out and the first Ene in the fort College.

Col. Charles L.

Supposed the Ene in the fort College.

Col. Charles L.

Supposed the Ene in the fort College.

Col. Charles L.

Supposed the Ene in the fort College.

Col. Charles L.

Supposed the Ene in the fort College.

Col. Charles L.

Supposed